HOME AGENTS' NOTES

"Consumers Marketing Information Co-ordinating with County Extension Service"

Summer gone — fall just reaching the height of its beauty here in the north and west — little hard to project our thinking into spring. But it's time to put on your "thinking cap" and plan for your spring flowering. If you don't you'll find yourself saying in the spring, "How I wish I had planted the bulbs I wanted last fall before it was too late."

It's bulb planting time right now! For early spring flowers in your garden Michigan grown hardy bulbs are tops especially tulips. You will find hardy bulbs available in quantity this fall.

A wide choice of varieties. October and early November are the best bulb planting months. In general, the sooner you plant them the more roots they will develop this fall and the earlier they will flower in the spring.

You may want to plant the earliest flowering bulbs among your shrubs, in the rock garden, or in nooks and corners where there isn't much room. The larger flowering ones, such as tulips and daffodils, will take more room. These can be planted in beds and borders to be followed by annuals or other perennials.

When you shop for tulip bulbs it is best to choose bulbs around two inches in diameter. Smaller bulbs produce smaller flowers. With daffodils satisfactory results can be obtained with No. 1 rounds. Better results are obtained from No. 1 double bulbs.

Buy bulbs that are firm and free from blotches and blemishes. These bulbs are more resistant to disease.

There are beautiful varieties of bulbs available at moderate prices. Prices go up rapidly for the newest hybrid varieties, and they are often no more attractive than the older varieties. The older varieties are very likely lower priced.

Here are some bulb planting tips:

1. Plan where your bulbs will give you most attractive results. 2. Plant bulbs the proper depth. Large bulbs should be planted at a depth which will leave their tops about three times the diameter of the bulbs below the surface of the ground. This is, tulip bulbs should be about 6 inches below the ground and daffodils up to 8 inches below the ground. Smaller types such as crocus, etc. should be planted about two inches below the surface and intermediate types from 3 to 5 inches.

3. Remove top soil to required depth. 4. Loosen soil below to avoid compaction. 5. Place bulbs in rows. 6. Replace surface soil. 7. Plant before the ground freezes in the fall.

Facts Of Life . . .

Farm Journal, in an editorial reviewing the attitude of the last Congress toward farm legislation, observes, "Some of the sacred cows die hard. But the facts of life cannot be denied indefinitely."

For instance, the magazine points out that not long ago many members supported rigid 90 per cent supports — while today you would have to hunt to find a 90 per cent.

All in all, this leading farm publication sees the future. "Congress is making some progress in its thinking on the farm legislation. It is moving in the general direction of allowing price, rather than government, to guide farmers' decisions. . . . Consumers are responsible for this. But we believe that farmers have had even more to do with it. . . . Most of them never had the idea of government control and support of farming in the first place, and many who once felt it necessary are pretty well disillusioned as to the effectiveness of government programs."

Actually, some of the most successful farming operations, measured by long-pull results, have been free of government control. Livestock is the outstanding example here. Meat animals are, by far, the farmer's largest source of cash income. And the livestock people are vigorously opposed government supports and the bureaucratic domination that would inevitably come with them, even in times of extremely low prices. They want to keep their independence and they want to make their own decisions.

The whole great meat industry, from the farms and ranches through the packing centers to the butcher shops, is a free enterprise industry. And it has given the American people standards of service that would seem unbelievable in most other lands.

An Old Story . . .

Four major food companies just reduced their prices of coffee simultaneously.

But there has been no cry about "controlled" prices such as we heard when steel and oil prices had to be raised recently.

Apparently it is not considered "collusion" by the politicians when prices drop. It seems to be pretty well understood that over-supply or lack of demand can cause reductions. But if prices go up for good and sufficient reasons, such as higher charges for raw materials, increased wages, crop shortages, etc., that's a different story — then the vote seekers cry plot to rob the consumer.

The steel and oil industries were hauled over the coals recently when they had to raise prices due to uncontrollable increases in the cost of production, over which they had no more control than did the food companies over conditions that caused the drop in coffee prices. Steel and oil will drop as well as increase in price. Our free market system calls for such adjustments.

McKinley Road, near Flint, Michigan. Paved with soil-cement in 1952.

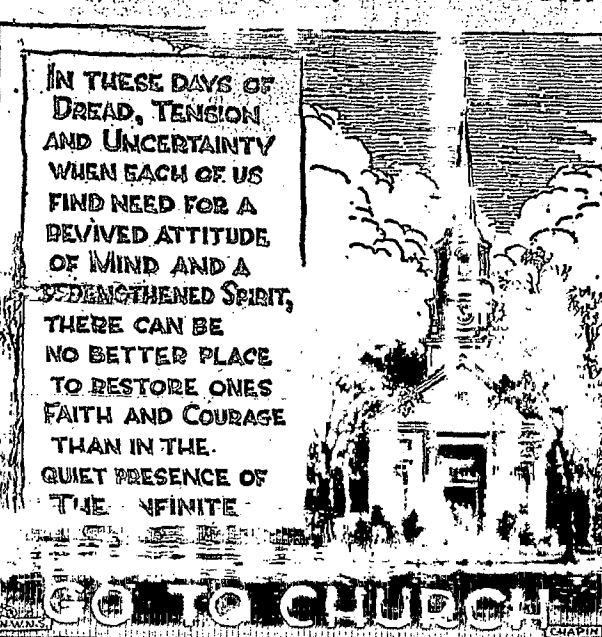

Michigan taxpayers get more for their money with soil-cement, the 20-year-plus pavement!

Genesee County already has 115 miles of soil-cement roads. The total cost was only $11,500 to $13,000 per mile — no more than for ordinary gravel roads!

Soil-cement is a portland cement . . . water . . . mixed right on the road and rolled solid. That's why soil-cement pavement — stronger, longer lasting than any other paving material — is so popular. Maintenance costs stay low. No softening, no break up, no revealed edges. These roads will last for 20 years and more. Soil-cement's low cost answer to your county's road problems. Ask your officials to look into it. Make your tax dollars produce better roads and more of them.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY, AND EVERY DAY

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

October 17, 1935

One of the nicest occasions that has been celebrated in Grayling for some time was the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vallad, when they repeated their marriage vows Saturday afternoon at Danebod Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson have finally settled down in an upstairs apartment of the Herliuf Sorenson residence.

Noting the great volume of gentlemen purchasers elbowing their way in and out of "Nellie's," J. Wellington Bumsted investigated, thinking there might be a special on socks or something, but there wasn't. However, Madonna Carribeau is back again after vacationing at Detroit and Jackson. The dazzling Madonna dazzles even more than before.

Don Reynolds, our electric office manager, and Sammy Gust, who is one of our youngest and more prominent haberdashers, are pursuing the wary pheasant somewhere in the region of Twinning. They left early enough so that they could be all set to be in the game country bright and early.

Dr. C. G. Clippert left Sunday for Detroit to attend the International Assembly of the Interstate Post Graduate Medical Association of North America. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clippert and daughter, Billieann.

Mrs. Lorne J. Douglas was in Grayling over the weekend visiting relatives. Mrs. Douglas left Sunday for Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, to join Mr. Douglas, who has a responsible position with a firm there, having gone there three months ago from Saginaw where they had resided for 23 years. Mrs. Douglas is making the trip alone by auto and planned to stop at Quinnesec to visit her brother Allen Failing. Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Olson and son, Esbern accompanied her as far as St. Ignace.

Miss Pochelon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pochelon and Mr. Charles W. Wheeler of Detroit were united in marriage at a pretty ceremony performed by Judge Christopher E. Stela in the Washington room of the Book-Cadillac hotel, Friday morning. Miss Emma Louise Pochelon was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Wilbur Schaff, the bridegroom's sister, was matron of honor. Breakfast was served at the Book-Cadillac. As the Pochelon family has been coming to their cabin on the AuSable for many years they have gained a large circle of friends in this vicinity who extend congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welsh left Tuesday for Chicago where Mr. Welsh will attend a meeting of Hoping manufacturers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunter, who have been residing in Jackson, have returned to Grayling to make their home for a time.

Complimenting Mrs. William J. son, some sixteen of her friends dropped in on her at her home down the river. The evening was spent playing cards and lunch was served.

Wednesday of last week a group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hunter met at their home for one of these "informal" parties. The evening was enjoyed playing cards after which a very nice lunch was served by the ladies. The affair was given as a surprise to Mrs. Hunter and everyone seems to have had a "swell" time. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Feldhauser and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pankow spent the day in Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Jess Sales and daughter Kristine left this morning to spend a few days in Detroit. They were accompanied as far as Saginaw by Wilhelm Ruse.

Mr. and Mrs. William Christenson and daughter Fay, accompanied by Mrs. Rufus Edmonds, of Maple Forest, left yesterday afternoon for Flint to spend the remainder of the week visiting at the home of Rufus Edmonds, Jr. Mr. Christenson will indulge in that great sport, pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Love of Beaver Creek, enjoyed a visit over the weekend from Mrs. William Schreiber of Dearborn, and Mrs. Charles Love and Henry Love of Mehoopany, Pa.

Mrs. Richard Lovely entertained at her home Tuesday evening with a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Oscar Goss. Progressive pinocle was enjoyed with first prizes going to Miss Veronica Lovely and Axel Peterson. Towel scores were held by Mrs. Joseph Kernosky and Eugene Papendick. After a very enjoyable evening, a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Goss received many lovely gifts.

Miss Margaret Nielsen returned the last of the week from a vacation trip to Niagara Falls and Canadian points, enjoying an opportunity to see the Dionne quintuplets. She also spent a few days in Saginaw.

Henry Wylie is home again after having spent the summer in the west. He was employed until just recently in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Failing and daughter Joan spent the weekend at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. William Jensen, down the river.

Misses Jayne Keyport and Georgianna Olson are leaving for Cadillac, tomorrow, where they will be weekend guests of Miss Elizabeth Matsen.

Miss Eva Madsen was home from Detroit for the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bugby and children spent Sunday visiting relatives at Pinconning. Monday

Mrs. Bugby, accompanied by Miss Eva Swanson, spent the afternoon at Gaylord.

Rudy Harrison seems to be our most recent and also our most famous puglist judging from reports of his bout at Rose City Monday evening. Rose City celebrated its annual Partridge festival at that time and as a part of the entertainment several bouts were put on for the enjoyment of the spectators. Rudy's was the final bout of the evening and also one of the most interesting. Matched against one of Rose City's local boys, R. D. Boddy, he was placed in the embarrassing position of having the other fellow rate nearly all the cheering and applause, which sometimes does a great deal toward helping to win a bout. However, Rudy did his very best and the match was fought right through to the finish without any knockouts and Rudy given the decision. Local fellows who witnessed the bout say it was a very good one.

Facts Of Life . . .

Farm Journal, in an editorial reviewing the attitude of the last Congress toward farm legislation, observes, "Some of the sacred cows die hard. But the facts of life cannot be denied indefinitely."

For instance, the magazine points out that not long ago many members supported rigid 90 per cent supports while today you would have to hunt to find a 90 per cent.

All in all, as this leading farm publication sees the picture, "Congress is making some progress in its thinking on the farm legislation. It is moving in the general direction of allowing price, rather than government, to guide farmers' decisions. . . . Consumers are fully responsible for this. But we believe that farmers have had even more to do with it. . . . Most of them nevered the idea of government control and support of pricing in the first place, and many who once felt it necessary are pretty well disillusioned as to the effectiveness of government programs."

Actually, some of the most successful farming operations, measured by long-pull results, have been free of government control. Livestock is the outstanding example here. Meat animals are, by far, the farmer's largest source of cash income. And the livestock people are vigorously opposed government supports and the bureaucratic domination that would inevitably come with them, even in times of extremely low prices. They want to keep their independence and they want to make their own decisions.

The whole great meat industry, from the farms and ranches through the packing centers to the butcher shops, is a free enterprise industry. And it has given the American people standards of service that would seem unbelievable in most other lands.

In Old Story . . .

Four major food companies just reduced their prices of coffee simultaneously.

But there has been no cry about "controlled" prices such as we heard when steel and oil prices had to be raised recently.

Apparently it is not considered "collusion" by the politicians when prices drop. It seems to be pretty well understood that over-supply or lack of demand can cause reductions. But if prices go up for good and sufficient reasons, such as higher charges for raw materials, increased wages, crop shortages, etc., that's a different story — then the vote seekers cry plot to rob the consumer.

The steel and oil industries were hauled over the coals recently when they had to raise prices due to uncontrollable increases in the cost of production, over which they had no more control than did the food companies over conditions that caused the drop in coffee prices. Steel and oil will drop as well as increase in price. Our free market system calls for such adjustments.

Michigan taxpayers get more for their money with soil-cement, the 20-year-plus pavement!

Genesee County already has 115 miles of soil-cement roads. The total cost was only $11,500 to $13,000 per mile — no more than for ordinary gravel roads!

Soil-cement is made of portland cement, water, and soil. It is mixed right on the road and rolled solid. That's why it is stronger than any other pavement material short of concrete. Maintenance costs stay low. No softening, no break up, no reveled edges. These roads will last for 20 years and more. Soil-cement's the low-cost answer to your county's road problems. Ask your officials to look into it. Make your tax dollars produce better roads and more of them.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

October 17, 1935

One of the nicest occasions that has been celebrated in Grayling for some time was the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vail, when they repeated their marriage vows Saturday afternoon at Danebod Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson have finally settled down in an upstairs apartment of the Herliuf Sorenson residence.

Noticing the great volume of business purchases elbowing their way in and out of "Wells," J. Wellington Burnsted investigated, thinking there might be a special on socks or something, but there wasn't. However, Madonna Cariveau is back again after vacationing at Detroit and Jackson. The dazzling Madonna dazzles even more than before.

Don Reynolds, our electric office manager, and Sammy Gust, who is one of our youngest and more prominent haberdashers, are pursuing the wary pheasant somewhere in the region of Twinning. They left early enough so that they could be all set to be in the game country bright and early.

Dr. C. G. Clippert left Sunday for Detroit to attend the International Assembly of the Interstate Post Graduate Medical Association of North America.

Mrs. Lorne J. Douglas was in Grayling over the weekend visiting relatives. Mrs. Douglas left Sunday for Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, to join Mr. Douglas, who has a responsible position with a firm there, having gone there three months ago from Saginaw where they had resided for 23 years. Mrs. Douglas is making the trip alone by auto and planned to stop at Quinnesec to visit her brother Allen Failing. Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Olson and son, Esbern accompanied her as far as St. Ignace.

Miss Pochelon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pochelon and Mr. Charles W. Wheeler of Detroit were united in marriage at a pretty ceremony performed by Judge Christopher E. Stein in the Washington room of the Book-Cadillac hotel, Friday morning. Miss Emma Louise Pochelon was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Wilbur Schiaff, the bridegroom's sister, was matron of honor. Breakfast was served at the Book-Cadillac. As the Pochelon family has been coming to their cabin on the AuSable for many years they have gained a large circle of friends in this vicinity who extend congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welsh left Tuesday for Chicago where Mr. Welsh will attend a meeting of flooring manufacturers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunter, who have been residing in Jackson, have returned to Grayling to make their home for a time.

Complimenting Mrs. William J. son, some sixteen of "or friends dropped in on her at her home down the river. The evening was spent playing cards and lunch was served.

Wednesday of last week a group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hunter met at their home for one of these "informal" parties. The evening was enjoyed playing cards after which a very nice lunch was served by the ladies. The affair was given as a surprise to Mrs. Hunter and everyone seems to have had a "swell" time. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Feldhauser and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fankow spent the day in Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Jess Sales and daughter Kristine left this morning to spend a few days in Detroit. They were accompanied as far as Saginaw by Wilhelm Raab.

Mr. and Mrs. William Christenson and daughter Fay, accompanied by Mrs. Rufus Edmonds, of Maple Forest, left yesterday afternoon for Flint to spend the remainder of the week visiting at the home of Mrs. Edmonds. Mr. Christenson will indulge in that great sport, pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Love of Beaver Creek, enjoyed a visit over the weekend from Mrs. William Schreiber of Dearborn, and Mrs. Charles Love and Henry Love of Mehoopany, Pa.

Mrs. Richard Lovely entertained at her home Tuesday evening with a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Oscar Goss. Progressive pinocle was enjoyed with first prizes going to Miss Veronica Lovely and Axel Peterson. Low scores were held by Mrs. Joseph Kornosky and Eugene Papendick. After a very enjoyable evening a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Goss received many lovely gifts.

Miss Margaret Nielsen returned the last of the week from a vacation trip to Niagara Falls and Canadian points, enjoying an opportunity to see the Dionne quintuplets. She also spent a few days in Saginaw.

Henry Wyllie is home again after having spent the summer in the west. He was employed until just recently in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Failing and daughter Joan spent the weekend at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. William Jensen, down the river.

Misses Jayne Keyport and Georgianna Olson are leaving for Cadillac, tomorrow, where they will be weekend guests of Miss Elizabeth Matson.

Miss Eva Madsen was home from Detroit for the weekend to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bugby and children, spent Sunday visiting relatives at Pinconning. Monday

Mrs. Bugby, accompanied by Miss Eva Swanson, spent the afternoon at Gaylord.

Rudy Harrison seems to be our most recent and also our most famous pugilist judging from reports of his bout at Rose City Monday evening. Rose City celebrated its annual Partridge festival at that time and as a part of the entertainment several bouts were put on for the enjoyment of the spectators. Rudy's was the final bout of the evening and also one of the most interesting. Matched against one of Rose City's local boys, R. D. Boddy, he was placed in the embarrassing position of having the other fellow rate nearly all the cheering and applause, which sometimes does a great deal toward helping to win a bout. However, Rudy did his very best and the match was fought right through to the finish without any knockouts and Rudy gave the decision. Local fellows who witnessed the bout say it was a very good one.

Countrymen have moved into the house Henry Bates just vacated.

Mose Lesperance has a bad abscess on his right eye and has not been able to work in the barber shop.

Local Store Aids TV Program Sponsor
"Swiss Family Robinson", a dramatic hour-long presentation of the classic story of a shipwrecked family, will be on NBC-TV Sunday, October 12, at 7:30. It is being sponsored by Mac's Rexall Drug Store, along with some 10,000 Rexall druggists across the country, to celebrate the opening next morning of the Rexall original 1c Sale.
The TV version of "Swiss Family Robinson" should appeal to old and young, presenting as it does the problem of staying alive in an unknown land. The father and mother, with their four boys, only survivors of a shipwreck, build a civilized life on their tropical island in spite of weather, wild beasts and other difficulties.
Viewers will also learn what tremendous purchasing power the penny still has. During Rexall 1c Sale days, Monday, October 13 through Saturday, October 18, customers can buy two identical Rexall items for the price of one plus 1c. In addition, special Bonus Buys will also be offered at reduced prices.
The Rexall Fall One-Cent Sale is one of two such sales held each year by Rexall druggists throughout the United States. It is being widely advertised in newspapers, Sunday newspaper and farm magazines, and on radio and television.

TWO LANES... OR MANY LANES

THE BEST PAVEMENT FOR MICHIGAN'S GREAT NEW ROADS IS CONCRETE... on all counts!

The Federal Aid Highway Act of 1956 provides that the Federal government will pay 90% of the cost of building the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways. The states, however, must bear the entire burden of maintaining it!

In fairness to taxpayers that means that the pavement chosen should be the most durable. It also should be the least costly to maintain. Concrete is the answer on both counts!

Roads built to Interstate System standards may cost less—and in no case much more if built with concrete. And once built, concrete roads need far less maintenance and serve much longer than other kinds. All these facts are a matter of record!

Whether the roads have only two lanes or many, you, as a taxpayer, will profit from the choice of dependable, long-lasting concrete; the pavement which has proven best on all counts.

First Time Voters In November Know

No Governor But Williams

MOST VOTERS going to the polls for the first time Nov. 4 have had only Gov. Williams as their symbol of political supremacy in Michigan since they were in the sixth grade.

They must learn from their elders, if at all, about former Gov.
Kim Sigler, the last Republican in the executive office.

Republicans this year are bearing down appropriately on the ancient political theme, successful in other places and other elections: "It's Time for a Change."

Their top elected official now is Senator Charles E. Potter, running hard for his second six-year term against Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart who was once Williams' heir-designate.

And many Democrats are wondering about the future in Michigan, even while they are confident of victory Nov. 4.

Party guessers in both camps are trying to figure what Williams will do in 1960, assuming he gets Paul D. Bagwell, a Michigan State University speech professor and the strongest Republican campaigner in years.

They are guessing that Williams will try for the nomination for president in 1960.

If all this came to pass, it would leave the Democratic party in Michigan without the leader who has brought it back from biennial defeat to domination of the state government.

Nonetheless, Williams would be leaving a party with leaders groomed to take his place. There could be a race for spots on the ticket for the first time in years.

What are Williams' chances in 1960?

The five-time governor of Michigan has been mentioned only as a possibility when Democrats get together nationally. The polls list twice-defeated Adlai Stevenson, Senators Kefauver and Kennelly, Governors Harriman, of New York, and Meyner, of New Jersey.

On Williams' side, none of these is staging a runaway in popular appeal at this early stage of the game.

Williams has been busy making political friends around the nation and trying to live down the civil rights row in the 1952 election which created new enemies for him in the south.

Democrats are rich in talent now whereas in 1948 they had trouble finding candidates to fill out the slate.

That year, Mrs. Margaret Price of Ann Arbor, an active lady party leader since the early days of Williams' career, was the candidate for auditor general.

Looking at the issue realistically,
it will be years before a party with a chance of winning all the marbles nominates a woman on the state ticket. It will come, observers say, but not now.

Through the years, Democrats have been building.

They now have veterans who have learned from the Williams touch in every major state office.

The Democratic governor has filled dozens of long-term judgeships and all state appointive offices.

Democrats now have a 5 to 3 majority on the state's "non-partisan" Supreme Court.

Younger leaders are being groomed.

They include State Senator John B. Swainson, a bright, one-time Republican club member, who is Williams' running mate
this year for lieutenant governor.
